May 1, 2026

Weldbend is announcing an overall modest price increase effective May 1, 2026. Our last price adjustment was in August 2022, when we DECREASED pricing to help our distributors stay competitive against an influx of import material. Further adjustments may be required as conditions continue to evolve.

Weldbend has invested and is continuing to invest in new equipment and inventory, which has allowed us to hold pricing steady for all of these years while others were raising prices.

Sincerely,
